

WORKING TOGETHER TO PROTECT IOWA'S CHILDREN

Iowa Chapter of Children's Advocacy Centers (ICCAC) is a nonprofit organization accredited by the National Children's Alliance as a state chapter to provide support, training and guidance to the six Children's Advocacy Centers (CACs) in Iowa who provide onsite services to child victims of either physical or sexual abuse and neglect. ICCAC assists communities and centers with training, resource development, network services, evidence-based practices, and coordinated, comprehensive services.

ICCAC serves all 99 counties and the six Iowa CACs which include: Mercy One Child Advocacy Center in Sioux City, Blank Children's STAR & Development Center in West Des Moines, St. Luke's Child Protection Center in Cedar Rapids, Mississippi Valley Child Protection Center in Muscatine, Child Protection Response Center in Davenport, and Allen Child Protection Center in Waterloo with a satellite office in Mason City.

- ✓ Technical assistance to do the work
- ✓ Ability to fulfill their mission
- ✓ Awareness on public policy/legislation effecting CACs

During another difficult 2022 year despite the continued impact of COVID 19 and other challenges, 100% of CACs agreed or strongly agreed that the Chapter:

100% of CACs agreed or strongly agreed that the Chapter:

- ✓ Enabled CACs to stay better connected with colleagues across the state
- ✓ Provided clear communication services and support
- ✓ Helped work through challenges experienced this year

HOW WE ARE FUNDED

ICCAC is 100% grant funded. In 2022, 66% of the Chapter's operational budget was funded through the National Children's Alliance through a Department of Justice subaward through Victims of Child Abuse Act. 26% of the Chapter's operational budget was contributed by the accredited CACs in Iowa that receive state funding. The Iowa Department of Public Health administers an annual grant to the CACs. The CACs have in turn, transferred a portion of the grant funds to the Chapter to cover operational expenses and to use for identified costs and CAC needs organized by the Chapter. An additional 8% of funding was provided through the Midwest Regional Child Advocacy Center to provide training opportunities for the CAC membership.
